Bru-Win Roundup

Mr. Campbell and some of our FFA students had the privilege to attend the World Agriculture Conference in Tulare, California, this past week. Safe travels and lots of great learning made it a successful experience for all!

DECA competed last week in the state competition. Please congratulate the following students:

Kylie Henna and Sophia Long - 1st in Business Law and Ethics Team Decision-Making

Vivian Lam and Gabriella Reinke - 2nd in Hospitality and Tourism Operations Research

Connor Hymas and Arabella Sorensen - 2nd in Financial Services Team Decision-Making

Lucas Habbaba - 3rd in Automotive Services Marketing Series

Kylie Henna, Isabelle Pelayo, and Brinley Salts - 5th in Integrated Marketing Campaign Event

Tate Stanger and Brock Ulrich - 6th in Start-Up Business Plan

Savannah Dunn and Jada Ward - 6th in Travel and Tourism Team Decision-Making

Also, Kylie Henna was recently named the VP of Career and Development for state DECA. Jada Ward, Sophia Long, and Gabriella Reinke all scored higher than 80% on their DECA tests. Congratulations to Ms. Peters and her DECA students.

GBB - lost to Mtn Home in the district play-offs, then travelled to Burley, where they lost in a must-win game to end their season.

Bowling -

Boys results:

Out of 96 bowlers -

Aidan Chabot 2nd place

Bruce Orton 15th

Eddie Cornelison 38th

Paxton Guiles 45th

Derek Burnham tied for 51st

Octave Ursenbach tied for 54th

Theo Morrison 90th

Overall great day for the boys - the 1st place match for Aidan came down to the last ball.

Girls results:

Out of 84 total competitors:

Laynee Olson took 1st place, shooting 530

Braylynn Jeroue took 2nd place, shooting 528

Jennifer Nuzio placed 7th

Morgan Anderson placed 24th

Jessica Olomon Tied for 47th

In the Semifinals - (2 more games bowled each)

Laynee remained in 1st and was the highest seed

Braylynn remained 2nd

Jennifer Nuzio placed 10th overall

In the finals, Laynee and Braylynn won their matches in a head-to-head for 1st and 2nd place. It came down to the last ball of the last frame, Laynee won by 4 pins, 159-155. It was a great bowling battle. Congratulations to Coach Watkins and her bowlers. Onto state this week!

BBB beat (crushed) both Mtn Home and Minico last week to clinch the #1 seed and a first-round bye entering the GBC district tournament this week. They will host a to-be-named opponent on Saturday in Baun gym at 6 pm. If they win, they will host on Tuesday as well to clinch the district championship. This game will also tip at 6 pm.

If you haven't been to see Mamma Mia, you should! Ms. Nielson and her Bruin High Players have poured their heart and souls into this show. It was fun to attend the sing-along matinee on Saturday.
